The sick are all reported better this week and as far as known there are no new cases.

Mrs. Kitching, of Sebastian, is visiting our town this week, the guest of the Jarvis House.

Messrs. Wheeler, Tucker, Hodges and Stauners, of Christmas, were in town on business the last of last week.

G. S. Tucker, of Fort Pierce, is in town for some time to look after business while J. H. Wynn is on his vacation.

C. A. Gore, of Christmas, came over to our town for a short stay last week, returning home on Saturday last.

Mrs. Losley and the Misses Daisy Williams and Willie May Gould, of Titusville, are visiting in our town this week.

Fishing is reported quite good now and the number of barrels shipped daily compares favorably with the shipments of last season.

Wm. Anderson has sold his mule to T. B. Gibbons, of Merritt, who will use it for hauling fish across the island from Banana river.

J. A. Booth, of Brantley, made a trip up on Tuesday to attend to some business and to incidentally see how we had survived the convention.

While there has been considerable sickness throughout this section there has been little that was really serious and still less that has been fatal.

Miss Leonice Lapham, of Indianola, was in town last Monday, having recovered sufficiently from an attack of illness to stand the trip across the river.

S. J. Norton, of Titusville, was a visitor here the first of the week to see Mrs. Wesson in regard to buying her Titusville property, but Mrs. W. has decided not to sell.

John H. Wynn left Monday last for a trip to Asheville, N. C., where he will rusticate for several weeks and long for the soft and cooling sea breezes of the east coast.

Mrs. S. S. Jones returned last Saturday from her St. Augustine visit, much to the joy of her family. She reports having had an enjoyable trip to the ancient city, seeing the sights and meeting up with a number of friends.

A marriage in high life among the negroes was celebrated last Sunday night. Young Moore and Malissa Williams, two well known negroes, residents of this town, were united in marriage at the A. M. E. church by Rev. J. D. Hill, their pastor.

Capt. W. H. McIntyre was shaking hands among his old friends here last Saturday, having come up from Eau Gallie, where he was called to have the steamer Courtney put in commission for a run on Bicayne Bay. The captain is looking well preserved and is as genial and popular as when he ran on Indian river.

The workmen are busy putting the roof on the new school building and the painter is already at work spreading the first coat of paint. The workmen are having a "hot time" these long summer days out on the roof, but they are pushing the work faithfully and hope to have the building ready when needed.

Master Willie Crosby had a close call last Monday. While at play in a wagon standing on the street he fell out, and striking on his head, a pretty large gash was cut in his forehead just over his left eye and the bone of his left wrist was split or splintered. He was patched up by Dr. Hughlett and now seems to be getting along very well.

A lady who, last winter, visited a certain Florida city in which a show of some kind was in progress, tells of the ludicrous mistake made by a cracker who is supposed to be too well posted to be so badly sold out. This cracker decided to take in the show, and, accordingly, bought a ticket and went in, and soon took in all in sight. He became greatly interested in the exhibition and concluded his fifty cents had been well invested. During a wait between acts he happened to see the word "exit" over a door opening to one side and at once decided that this was a kind of side show department and that he would take that in while he waited for the regular play; so he proceeded to investigate the "exit," and, in doing so, found himself entirely outside the building, much to his surprise and chagrin. Not having his ticket, the only thing to do was to go home or buy another. He decided to do the latter and finished the show. Somehow or other it got out, and it is said he never hears the word "exit" now without getting fighting mad.

You assume no risk when you buy Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Wilson & Son will refund your money if you are not satisfied after using it. T. H. Sanders and family spent the Sabbath at M. S. Sams'.

Miss Bessie Hall, of Titusville, has been spending a few days with the Misses A. and B. Sanders.

Our short sojourn last week at the East fine-feed mill, in the shire health resort acted as an invigorating tonic.

A 15-minute rain passed over the poor house Monday and took the wilt out of the occupant and his orange trees. Thanks.

We understand that a slight inroad was made on the royal household of Brevard at Cocoa last week. The Warwick of Cocoa's turn next.

Ex-Senator Norwood, of Titusville, assisted by Lieut. Joe, drove a fine cow and her offspring from the Grant farm to the shire city via the Haulover Monday.

Robert and Richard LaRoche are home working their fine groves this week. Next Monday they return to their labors on the new Titusville temple of education.

If peradventure we should secure a Floridian consort and she should bear and raise a son, we sincerely hope he would not be politically ostracised because pater familias was born up north.

We learn that many of the participants of the Friday night hop at the opera house had a howling good time, although a young lady was chagrined whose "steady" was decorated by a belle who enveloped a charming dark eyed seniorita with it, and also many abhor the un-nice 2 lip hobby that students have introduced on this staid island, as it is not in our creed.

Alex. Near is building a new life-boat for Capt. Ramsey, of the steamer Canaveral. The vessel will be completed this week.

Rod and reel fishing is a favorite amusement on the county bridge this month. The catches are phenomenally large at times.

Hodgson Bros' steamer, Kathleen, has been on the ways this week having the usual fall overhauling and painting. This smart vessel now looks like new.

The sloop Dixie, Capt. J. H. Andrews, owner, is moored in the Eau Gallie river for the gale season now on. Other vessels are now on the way to this harbor for refuge.

Eau Gallie's young people gave a dance in the Eureka hall Wednesday evening. Melbourne and other adjacent points were well represented, and a very pleasant time was spent by the guests present.

Three large manatee were noticed in the river near the county bridge this week. These rare animals are frequently seen in our waters. The specimens seen must have weighed half a ton each, and were in prime condition.

The dance at Melbourne last Saturday evening was well patronized by our citizens. Among those noticed on board the steamer Spartan were Mesdames W. J. Nesbitt, Watts, A. S. Bottsford, Misses Susie Sommers, Hodgson, Mamie Taylor, and many others whose names your correspondent could not learn.

The Courtney has left for Miami or Lake Worth, where she will be overhauled and put into commission. Capt. McIntyre was in command, with Engineer Thompson in the engine room. The vessel—above water—went away looking in first-class condition. John Ferguson had the steamer in charge while out of commission.

The social dance at West's hall last Saturday evening was, as usual, a pleasant affair. About thirteen were down from Eau Gallie, and a good attendance of our own folks. Melbourne is noted for her good social times, both winter and summer.

Editor E. D. Oslin and little daughter, Lila, of Southern Pines, N. C., arrived here Saturday to visit his folks. They left Tuesday. Mr. Oslin says they don't have this cool Indian river breeze in Southern Pines. He would like to be able to carry it back with him.

BANYAN.

Mrs. John Houston and daughter, Laura, left for Palm Beach Tuesday.

Jason Carr, of Georgia, is here trying to work off some mill contracts for J. M. Boring, of Kentucky.

The leaf nappers that were so destructive to beans are still here. It is feared that they will injure the coming bean crop, and many will plant tomatoes and eggplants instead.

GRAY'S STREAKS Why let all your neighbors and friends think you must be twenty years older than you are? Yet it's impossible to look young with the color of 70 years in the hair. It's sad to see young persons look prematurely old in this way. Sad because it's all unnecessary; for gray hair may always be restored to its natural color by using—

AYER'S Hair Vigor
